

INSIGHTS Journal

for Global Theological Education

We are seeking reviews of books on Majority World theological education for our Spring 2022 issue. Below is our current list of options. We would welcome reviews on any of these books. If you know of other recent academic books (2019-2021) on this topic that you would like to review, please email us (editor@insightsjournal.org).

You can find our requirements for book reviews as part of our submission guidelines: <https://insightsjournal.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/12/2019-InSights-Journal-Style-Guide.pdf>.

You can submit book reviews directly here: <https://insightsjournal.org/submit-an-article/>.

Spring 2022 Call for Book Reviews

- Ed. Gene L. Green, Stephen T. Pardue, and K.K. Yeo, Majority World Theologies (2018)
- Ed. Stanley E. Porter and Steven M. Studebaker, Evangelical Theological Method: Five Views (2018)
- Ed. Jonathan Andrews, The Church in Disorienting Times: Leading Prophetically through Adversity (2018)
- C. Douglas McConnell, Cultural Insights for Christian Leaders (2019)
- Chloe T. Sun, Attempt Great Things for God: Theological Education in Diaspora (2020)
- Marvin Oxenham, Character and Virtue in Theological Education: An Academic Epistolary Novel (ICETE Series) (2019)
- Willie Jennings, After Whiteness: an Education in Belonging (2020)
- Sunday Agang, African Public Theology (2020)
- Fred P. Edie and Mark A. Lamport, Nurturing Faith: A Practical Theology for Educating Christians (2021)
- Ed. Marilyn Naidoo, Making Connections: Integrative Theological Education in Africa (2021)
- Kwame Bediako, African Theology for a World Christianity (2021)